UPDATE/FEEDBACK

There has been a meeting with the architect this week. We have asked him if local tradesmen could be used

We have enough funds to start phase 1, we are raising funds for phase 2

The bbq on bank holiday Monday made £329, Aunt Sally £60 and name the bear £31. Thank you to every one for their help and support

We didn't manage to get the book of tiles up and running. We have a binder that the Sunday School are going to design a cover for. On reflection, we thought that £5 to write a message in a book at the cricket fete wasn't going to get us started as it wasn't the right place. £5 seems too high. Jackie will contact Margaret and Roy Morris, who's idea it was, as to how we should advertise and promote this and the best way to launch it

We have received our money from the Foxbury Farm open gate collection

7 ladies cycled 25 miles for the sponsored ride'n'stride on Saturday. We hope to have raised nearly £400 with half to St Brits and half to the Historic Churches Trust

GOLF TOURNAMENT

James has not done anything about this yet but he has been talking to people and asking them if they would be interested. This will now be planned for Easter 2012

CLAY PIGEON SHOOTING

Jacquie Griffin has enquired at Cokethorpe School about clay pigeon shooting. They can take up to 12 people in a group and would charge £6 for 25 clays. We could provide a hot soup lunch or picnic lunch depending on the time of year. We presume it would be while school are on holiday. Jackie will email Jacquie and ask her to book a date with Warwick Daniels from Cokethorpe School and we will go from there. Suggest October half term or Spring half term

PUDDING NIGHT

Saturday November 19th in Elderbank hall at 6,30pm

Jackie to ask Phil to design some posters and tickets.

Entrance £7.50 which will include 3 puddings and a bingo card, tea and coffee or soft drinks

Extra bingo cards may be purchased. Extra puddings may be eaten for a donation

Entrance will be by ticket only so that we know how many portions we need.

Bring along a pudding for free entry into the pudding competition

Ruth will organise the prizes for the bingo
Tammy will think of someone to judge the puddings
Jackie will get disposable bowls and spoons
We need to track down some bingo balls and a caller
We can advertise our cheese wine and flowers evening

PUB GRUB COMPETITION

Jane is not in this evening for us to discuss this with her

BARN DANCE

We will try and contact Amanda and Richard Matthews at Caswell Farm to see if e can use their barn for our barn dance.

CHEESE WINE AND FLOWERS

December 2nd was pencilled in for this

Dawn is not at the meeting for us to ask how she is getting on. We will supply cheese and wine and then watch a demonstration on some Christmas flowers such as a garland. We don't want it to go on too long as it may be very cold in church

Suggest 7.30 start and charge £5

CHRISTMAS DRAW

As the cheese wine and flowers is unlikely to attract any men we thought we could do another Christmas event.

Tuesday December 20th we will hold a Christmas Season Social (working title!)

We will serve wine and beer and have a grand draw with pre-printed tickets

Jackie will look into the licence and the printing

First prize £100

We can recap on the past year, maybe a slide show flicking over in the back ground with photos of 2011 activities. Christmas music playing, nibbles, candles and fairy lights. Just drop in for a drink and a chat

Advertise and sell safari supper tickets

SAFARI SUPPER

The date pencilled in for this is January 28th

The event was discussed; no actual decisions were made yet

QUEENS DIAMOND JUBILEE AND OLYMPIC CELEBRATIONS

Ideas are still needed for this. No one was totally sure of the dates

BEER FESTIVAL

Tim from the Sports and Social Club has said that they would be interested in helping us with this, they need to hold a meeting first to discuss it amongst themselves. Jackie will be in touch with Tim as everyone at tonights meeting thought it would be a good idea if we had extra man power for this event

May 27th was suggested for the date. Tim has said he will arrange for no cricket to be on that day.

We could play Aunt Sally, skittles and other large garden games on that day.
Jackie will keep in touch with Tim and arrange a joint meeting

BALL 2012

This depends on the barn dance plans

CREAM TEA

Carry forward

BRIDGE LUNCH

No one has asked Judy or Ann yet

AOB

The Chequers are keen to hold a Sunday night pub quiz. Tammy will ask them to book a date and let us know, we can then forward the details to everyone we know

DATE OF THE NEXT MEETING

Monday October 10th in the Chequers
